PASSENGER VICTIM
P. Ramirez, a Mexican, aged 24, 721 New High street, was shot down to the heart last night near College and New High streets. Joe Calles, an Italian, 721 College street, told Detective Sergeant Lloyd that the bullet was meant for him. Calles was married a week ago, he said, and as he and Fern, a relative of his wife, passed the home of one Mrs. Calles, the former owners, the man appeared with a gun and whiff and the shooting followed.

FIRE SWEEPS TRUCKEE
RENO (Nev.), Aug. 24.—Fire starting at 1 o'clock this morning is raging in Truckee, Cal., and several business houses have been destroyed, according to meager reports received here. The Sierra Tavern, Denver Garage and other buildings are a fire and fear was expressed that the damage would be great. Telephone communication with the city was cut off shortly after the report of the fire was received here. Fire fighting equipment of the Southern Pacific company has been rushed to the scene.

RANDIT ROBS CAFE
While scores of patrons filled the place, a heavily armed bandit at midnight last night held up Mrs. R. N. Atherton, cashier of the El Fin Cafe, 518 West Seventh street, and escaped with $21, according to a report made to Detective Sergeant Murray. The robbery was executed so quickly that few of the customers were aware of it until after the bandit had escaped.

Governor Beats Mr. Croesus

Seventy Dollars Apiece for Place Plates for His Table

Thirty-nine Dollars for a Pillow, Etc.; All Out of State Funds

(Before publishing an account of the following remarkable instance of extravagance by an official elected by the people to maintain government on a sane and economical basis, The Times caused to be made a careful investigation of the official records and chain of photographs of the official documents of these photographs appear on the second page of this issue.)

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.) SACRAMENTO, Aug. 24.—Gov. Stephens, candidate for reelection, spent from State funds $68.75 each for "place plates," $25 each for "tea set plates," $25 each for napkins, $25 for a pair of handkerchiefs, and like extravagance came from other household articles so cheaply as to give them from the homes of even wealthy families, has come to light through discovery of bills and vouchers, officially approved and paid, in the official files of the State Controller.

One State official, an appointee of Gov. Stephens, when shown the list of items purchased for the Governor's State-maintained mansion here, remarked that "California expects her Governor to maintain himself in keeping with his high office," but this view of the matter is not shared by others, who profess to find in the relatively small items full explanation of the profligate waste of millions of dollars in various State departments during the term of office of Gov. Stephens.

In the light of these figures, the signed guarantee made by Friend W. Richardson, State Treasurer for the Republican nomination for Governor, to save the taxpayers $115,000,000 in his first four years, if elected, and to cut from $12,000,000 to $10,000,000 from the present budget of $61,000,000 on his first budget, seems a very small feat.

FOR TWELVE DINNERS!!
In the winter of 1919-20, a bill rendered the State by Shreve & Co. of San Francisco shows the expenditure from the emergency fund of $445 for twelve small dinners for the executive mansion, as follows:

Four place plates.....	$275
Four bon bon plates.....	120
Four sherbets.....	120
Total.....	$495

This is an average of about $40 each for the twelve dinners.

And in January, 1920, the following items, totaling $614.75 or, with a refund of $12.50, $602.25, were purchased by the Governor:

100 small tarts.....	$12.00

"Diamond Cocktail" Land Investigative Genuis in Jail

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.) NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—"Baseball cocktails," the latest device of the bootlegging industry, landed Max Sanford, 45, their introducer, in jail today on a charge of violating the dry law.

Sanford, according to Patrolman Farron, was doing a land-office business at Fourteenth street and Third avenue late yesterday, selling "balls" which looked just like league baseballs, but tasted much different—inside—for only 50 cents apiece.

Magistrate Doras held Sanford today in jail of $1000 for the grand jury.

Charles C. Moore on the Platform Last Night

HE ANSWERS QUESTIONS

Charles C. Moore Replies Frankly to List of Newspaper Queries

In striking contrast to the attitude of Hiram Johnson, his opponent, who refused to answer pertinent questions on campaign issues, Charles C. Moore last night delivered frank replies from the platform of Trinity Auditorium to the list of questions propounded to him by the Los Angeles Record yesterday afternoon.

In large type on its front page the Record asked Mr. Moore to clearly define his position on (1) the Eech-Cummins law, (2) Senator Newberry, (3) the ship subsidy bill now before Congress, (4) child labor and (5) organized labor, or the right of collective bargaining.

Here are Mr. Moore's answers:

(1) THE EECH-CUMMINS BILL
This is basic legislation and though labor opposed its final passage a great many leaders, both of labor or capital were for the bill because of its constructive attempt to settle a grave economic question which confronted the country as a result of the war. Had I been in the Senate I believe I would have voted for it because of its constructive attempt to help.

(2) SENATOR NEWBERRY
I am in favor of a ship subsidy because the United States must not permit itself to be in a position in which it is forced to purchase ships from other countries.

(3) SHIP SUBSIDY
I am in favor of a ship subsidy because the United States must not permit itself to be in a position in which it is forced to purchase ships from other countries.

(4) CHILD LABOR
I am in favor of a ship subsidy because the United States must not permit itself to be in a position in which it is forced to purchase ships from other countries.

(5) ORGANIZED LABOR
I am in favor of a ship subsidy because the United States must not permit itself to be in a position in which it is forced to purchase ships from other countries.

OVATION TO MOORE

Great Audience Cheers Him

Ring Speech Closes the Southern Campaign of Senate Candidate

Return to the Principles of Republicanism is His Keynote

In a rising tide of enthusiasm that swept men and women to their feet in spontaneous outbursts of cheering and applause—enthusiasm that came from the heart as well as from the head—Charles C. Moore, Republican candidate for United States Senator, last night completed his campaign in Southern California with a masterly declaration of his policies and principles before more than 10,000 persons packed into Trinity Auditorium.

Hiram Johnson received very little attention at the hands of Mr. Moore and the other speakers. Last night's meeting was a Moore meeting, nothing else. Confidence was the keynote—a return to Republicanism was the inspiration.

Mr. Moore, after six weeks of campaigning, was in perfect condition and his sentences rang with all the force of sincerity and a spirit that presaged victory.

Other speakers paid high tribute to the candidate and gave the huge gathering ample opportunity for vociferous outbursts of enthusiastic applause by presenting a renewed national prestige for California when Mr. Moore takes his seat in the United States Senate.

Speakers included Chester H. Rowell, State Railroad Commissioner, journalist, orator and economist, who is credited with responsibility for many of the former political triumphs of Senator Johnson; William May Garland, who served as temporary chairman; and Helen Matheson Langhille, dean of women at the University of California, Southern Branch, who introduced Mr. Moore.

The crowd was with the candidate from the start. The cheering that gave him when he walked to his seat on the platform was something more than friendly enthusiasm. Mr. Moore himself seemed to feel the quick thrill of his presence evoked. When he delivered his address he talked man-to-man fashion with no effort at oratory or dramatic effect.

FEEL FOR GOOD WILL
"We must build with each other in complete and honest," said the candidate, "and in a spirit of good will, we must build down in luxury and in the heart of the nation, we must build back comfort and happiness and prosperity to ourselves."

He proceeded, interrupted frequently by cheers, to state his convictions. And, in the words of a soldier in uniform, he declared his belief in the future of the nation.

"The question is not what you like best, but which course you want to follow—downward or upward."

"We may talk about many things to confuse the issue, but this is the one on which our votes will not. The Progressive side of the present issue is the side which would have America take its part in the reconstruction of the world as it has already done in the four-power treaty. The reactionary side would have us escape these problems."

REDS HELD BY COURT

Action Disaster to Cause

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.) ST. JOSEPH (Mich.), Aug. 24.—Two candidates for Governor of Michigan, all "Reds" of national reputation, were arraigned here today in what is characterized as the most important radical round-up of the past ten years. The men—all so far arrested are men—were charged with violation of the State criminal syndicalism law. Each was held under $10,000 bonds.

Heading the list was Charles E. Ruthenberg of Cleveland, O., thrice candidate for Governor of that State. Beside him in the old-fashioned country courtroom of St. Joseph was Thomas J. O'Flaherty, now candidate for Governor of New York on the ticket of the Workers' Party of America.

Simultaneously with the arraignment, secret warrants charging a like offense were issued, it is said, for more than thirty men and women. But two of these are known. They are Rose Pastor Stokes, once the wife of a multimillionaire, and Ella Reeves Bloor of San Francisco, organizer for the Workers' Party. Arrests of these radicals are to be made on sight throughout the nation.

Sorrowing Spectators Line Streets as Body is Taken to City Hall, Where It Will Lie in State

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.) DUBLIN, Aug. 24.—Twice today the body of Michael Collins was carried through the streets of Dublin, which were lined with sorrowing spectators. Early in the day, in an impressive procession, the body was taken from the steamer Clasp and transported on a gun carriage to St. Vincent's Hospital. This evening it was removed to the City Hall, where it will lie in state until Sunday.

Military and civic guards, ministers of the government, members of the Dail Eireann and many clergy, among them three bishops, followed the coffin, which was covered with the Irish tricolor, while in the mourning carriages were the brother, sister and other relatives.

Irish pipers played a lament, while officers of the Dublin brigade acted as pallbearers. Dense crowds had gathered hours before the appointed time and on all sides poignant grief was displayed as the cortege passed. Hundreds of Dublin guards formed an escort, with arms reversed, and a vast procession of bareheaded men

We Want

EGG Recipes

We'll Pay a Dollar for Every One that is Printed

We want them to give to the good housewives of Southern California so they can EAT MORE EGGS. And here are two excellent reasons why Californians should EAT MORE EGGS:

World's Best Eggs

California EGGS come almost exclusively from commercial poultry ranches. Many of these are owned and operated by college-bred people. California hens are fed on grain, and fed on GRAIN. They are not permitted to roam about and eat refuse. In New York City, where 10% of all the EGGS produced in the U. S. are consumed, California EGGS command a premium of 10c to 50c.

Cheapest in 7 Years

For 1915 have EGGS been so cheap
as now. Such delicacies as Angel Food Cakes, Custards, etc., can now be served in the most frugal homes. It is true that you can now EAT MORE EGGS.

HARMONY RULES EMPIRE STATE

Renomination of Miller and Calder Assured

Opposition to Candidate Has Not Crystallized

Roosevelt Urged to Make
Race, but Refuses

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—While the Republican organization is being jolted and even rent asunder in many State, all is serene and peaceful with the G. O. P. in the Empire State. A condition of harmony prevails in the ranks of the New York Republicans that is almost unprecedented.

The renomination of Gov. Miller and United States Senator Calder appears to be a foregone conclusion. With the nominating convention scarcely more than a month and the delegate primary little more than three weeks away, no opponent has come out against either and none is now expected. Mr. Calder is an avowed candidate to succeed himself, while Gov. Miller has not formally announced his candidacy, but even in the latter case no opponent has been tempted to get into the contest.

This does not mean that the Republicans in New York are all of one way of thinking. There is criticism of both Gov. Miller and Senator Calder in some quarters, and at one time it seemed as if such opposition would crystallize in a candidate against one or both of them. Lieut. Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, was strongly urged by numerous men and women originally numbered with his father's following to declare himself a candidate for the nomination for Governor or Senator.

ROOSEVELT IS BACKWARD

It was reported to Col. Roosevelt that neither Miller or Calder could beat Al Smith if he were nominated for either Governor or Senator, by the Democrats and that young "Teddy" was the only Republican who could be relied upon to take the measure of popular Al, but nothing tangible has come of this move up to date.
Col. Roosevelt did not appear to take the flattering representations seriously and their authors found both Calder and Miller so strongly entrenched that the chances of beating either one were far from promising.

CONTROL ORGANIZATION

The Republican organization is for the renomination of both Miller and Calder, and the lack of crystallized opposition is attributed by some Republicans to the repel of the direct primary law and the return to the convention system of nominating national and State candidates. Defenders of the direct primary complain that the State has gone back to political bossism and that when the organization is a unit in support of a candidate none others need apply.

This reasoning is not borne out, however, by the situation in the Democratic party, where the organization almost unanimously supports Smith for Governor. This has not prevented the opposition, however, from putting forward Hearst, Hylan, Furman and others and going out to land delegates for them in the primary.

Paris to Help Vienna

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
PARIS, Aug. 24.—It is reliably reported in Paris that Ignaz Seipel, the Austrian Chancellor, who is in Berlin, received an invitation from the French government to come to Paris to discuss means by which Austria may be assisted in her present difficulties. France is concerned over the possibility of a union between Austria and Germany.

VEERANS HEAR MOORE

Seven hundred inmates of the Soldiers Home at Sattelle, veterans of three wars, cheered Charles C. Moore yesterday afternoon when he addressed them in the home auditorium.

Spoken for Hiram Johnson
in 1910. Mr. Moore said, "and I thought he was a Republican."
"You were mistaken," yelled a Civil War veteran, who was seated in the front row and yet had to hold his hand as an ear trumpet throughout the address.

"Why," he admitted Mr.
Moore. "Why," he had to write in names on the ballot. He had disfranchised me. He had disfranchised me. Now Hearst has aspirations for the governorship of New York as a Democrat. And he is supporting Johnson, said to be a Republican, here in California. When

The Senatorial candidate praised the efforts of President Harding looking to world peace. He said the four power treaty was "inspired."

"But California, more than any other one State did more to defeat it," he said. "But it wasn't defeated. We used to hear a lot of talk about war with Japan.
Have you noticed that now, a year after the treaty, we hear no more such talk?"

MOORE REPLIES TO QUESTIONS

to maritime activities at the opening of the World War. The American flag cannot be kept on the high seas without governmental assistance to ship operators, because of our high standard of living and consequently higher wages for seamen and higher operating cost.

(4) CHILD LABOR

That there should be any debate in an enlightened community as to the desirability of employing children of tender years before they have reached an age where their health will not be affected by such labor, is most astounding. Mr. Moore man, and as a father, and as a good citizen, a favor legislation which will effectively restrain the exploitation of children commercially.

(5) ORGANIZED LABOR

In my own business I have had twenty-eight years of experience with labor. I am conversant with organized, I feel that the right of men to secure better conditions for themselves, through organization or any other proper means, is a birthright. I have been a working man myself. So long as the means employed and so long as the methods used to obtain better living and working conditions are legitimate, there can be no quarrel with collective bargaining or the formation of any craft or organization to work for their individual and collective betterment.

THE CHALLENGE

The Record in all of its editions yesterday printed the question and answer this large heading: "WHAT KIND OF A MAN IS MOORE?"

And Mr. Moore answered that question, too.

Here is The Record's communication:

"To Charles C. Moore, candidate for United States Senator from California:

"Your opponent, Senator Hiram Johnson, declined to give The Record his reasons for dodging a vote on the Currency and gold and the seating of Senator Newberry. He declined to state his present position on these matters.

He has stumped Southern California thoroughly and the people do not know his position on the iniquitous ship subsidy bill.

"Now we're told, Candidate
Moore, that you're different than Hiram. Nothing evasive about you. You're 'clean cut.' You answer questions and you're 'progressive' who have flocked to your camp have hinted darkly that there's a reason, have implied that you're going to surprise the nation by your aggressive stand for the people. But nothing you've ever said or done so far justifies their position.

"Out with it tonight. In your Trinity Auditorium address clearly define your position on: (1) the Currency-Each law, (2) Senator Newberry, (3) the ship subsidy bill now before congress, (4) child labor, and (5) organized labor, or the right of collective bargaining."

"Tell us whether you're a labor union hater and believe in labor union bailing, like some of your powerful supporters, or whether you're a labor supporter, like your supporters have been assailing Senator Johnson for his silence. What right have you to silence?"

It should be remembered that before Mr. Moore's opponent, Hiram Johnson, came to Southern California with his 'hymn of hate,'
Mr. Johnson promised to 'meet every issue and answer every question,' and that a list of sixteen questions were submitted to Mr.
Johnson, not by a newspaper, but by nine of the most influential Republican men and women of California, and that despite the fact that this list of questions was submitted to him day after day, with a guarantee that his replies would be printed, he dodged and dodged and dodged, and finally dodged back to San Francisco. THE QUES-TIONS UNANSWERED.

STATE OFFICIAL SURPRISED

AT EXTENT OF FEELING

AGAINST JOHNSON

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 24.—Returning to the State today after a tour through his district in the Northern California, Richard Collins, chairman of the State Board of Equalization, expressed surprise at the extent of sentiment he found for Charles C. Moore, candidate for United States Senator.
Collins, who is a keen political observer and is intimately acquainted in Northern California, declared Senator Johnson has a real "no-fight" on his hands.

"In my travels I was impressed with two things in the Senatorial fight," said Collins. "First, many former Johnson men are saying, 'I think Johnson will win, but I'm going to vote for Moore.' Second, thousands of Democrats have changed their registration in order to vote against Johnson."

Collins said the County Clerk of Mendocino county, which is being claimed by the Moore supporters, told him that on the last day for registration he found time for nothing else but take care of Democrats who desired to change their party affiliation to vote for Moore.
He said they were "Wen men out to knife Johnson."

An enthusiastic meeting of the Sacramento Moore-for-Senator Club was held last night and plans made to make a house-to-house canvass here on next Tuesday.

Scott Ennis, prominent wholesale merchant and president of the Moore club, declared that Moore will come to the Tehachapi with a substantial majority and predicted the candidate will carry San Francisco.

DEATH MAY NOT BE VAIN

CORV, Aug. 24.—Tom Hale, who led and accepted the responsibility for the ambush which killed Michael Collins, repudiated it today, threw down his arms and offered to join the National forces.

Tom Hale is the brother of Sean Hale, a protest member of the Dail Eireann. The former has been a fierce opponent of the treaty, and it is not known which of his offer to join the Nationals will be accepted.

He and his sister on last St. Patrick's day set fire to the platform at Bandon where a demonstration in favor of the treaty was being held under the auspices of his brother, Sean, and Canon Cohanparish priest of Bandon.

His present change of front is regarded as a demonstration point to the prevailing belief that the death of Michael Collins may not have been in vain as his action may animate his comrades to do likewise.

Sean Collins, proceeding from Cionally yesterday to attend his brother's funeral had a trying experience. He was arrested on the Bandon-Macroom road by irregulars, who taunted him with his courage "to stand up and be plugged," and spoke jubilantly of having plugged McKee, the traitor," referring to his brother, Michael.

Sean Collins remained in custody overnight but was released

"All the inhabitants of the island

"We had a hard time getting away. The women wanted husbands and they pleaded with us and coaxed us to stay. Owing to the isolation of Tagawa, most of the men of marriageable age have left it, some have gone to sea as sailors and others are scattered throughout the southern ocean and as far away as Australia."

"On our twentieth day on the

the mate of the steamer Hauraki.
We put out in our boat and sig-

the attention of those aboard her and they picked us up."

"We were not worrying for if the Hauraki had not sighted us we would have been taken off the island by the London Missionary Society boat, which calls at Tag-awa twice each year."

J. A. GRAVES POINTS TO WASTE
IN HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 24.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Your pompous and mendacious Government, William D. Stephens, should be defeated on his State highway record if for no other reason.

The greatest possible waste of the taxpayer's money has occurred in his highway department.

Over two years ago the automobile associations of California, after an extensive survey of roads already constructed by competent engineers, pointed out to the Governor the folly of building more roads of the width and quality which the State was then building. The Governor waved the automobile associations aside as slanders of the character of the State of California.

He and his subordinates continued to build roads too narrow for traffic, and too poorly built to stand up under the strain. Millions were wasted on such construction. Miles of roads have been widened at great expense.
Miles and miles of roads have been virtually rebuilt, some of them two or three times, and no improvement made in the quality of their construction.

I have recently made an extensive trip over the highways of the State, and was appalled at their condition. Everywhere they showed disintegration. Everywhere they were patched until they looked like Joseph's coat. Gangs of re-pairers obstructed the highways in every direction, making it difficult to proceed over them. The road from Sausalito over the Ridge Route is so bad for several miles, although comparatively new, that one must conclude from an inspection of it, that there is something worse than incapacity on the part of whoever built it. It bears every evidence of a wilful waste of State funds in its construction.

The administration inadvertently
let it get out that it wants $65-100,000 to repair and rebuild its entire State highways, and $100,000-000 for new highways. I am convinced that it will take $44,000-000 to repair and rebuild present highways so as to keep them from wholly disintegrating. I, for one, however, do not want our mendacious Governor, and his spendthrift gang of followers, to spend the money. He has failed up to date on highway construction, and any

BEAVERS ARE TOUGH BABIES

ing touched for a double in the first frame, and allowing no more until the ninth, when a couple of pinch-hitters hopped onto him for a run. Vernon, aided by an error, landed on Coleman for two in the seventh. The Tigers didn't need the error at the time, but it looked helpful later on when the Beavers began taking a few slams at Jackie.

Coleman, rather fresh from the Oregon Aggies or some such educational institution, proved to be a very clever contortionist with the underhand catch, and took on the aspect of a real find.

CLASHY DUEL. Anyway, it was a clashy duel, and a young reporter for an afternoon paper wired in something about somebody pitching toe-to-toe. So it must be that either Jackie or Ralph is pigeon-toed, although we never noticed it.

THE next time these pitchers work we will take a bird's-eye view of their feet from the press box. A pitcher pitching toe-to-toe could spin like a top when thrown to the bases and in that way would catch many runners by surprise.

The crash came in the seventh, when Zeider doubled with one whiffed. May crossed the visitors by beating out a bunt. Sargent, playing deep, snatched the pill out of the grass, and threw wild to the bases and in that way second on this strong, healthy heave, and Zeider scored in a neat package.

DIDN'T SCATTER. Rolfe didn't scatter himself in crossing the plate as on the day before. He kept his anatomy concentrated, his business being even with his back when he arrived. On the day before his face was safe at the plate, and his feet out. He has quit being a half-and-half base runner.

was as safe as though he had curled up in a ball and rolled across the plate, leaving fewer scattered footprints than a caterpillar engine. No longer do fans bet on Zeider's nose to win at the plate, his knee for the place and his feet to show.

He is now soul-mate with perfect coordination in every link. All his joints are now soul-mate, making him such an affinity with himself that his shadow seems like a mysterious stranger. Reverting a second back, May is found taking third on Chadbourne's error, and scoring on a single by Smith after High had walked.

Starting the sixth inning Elliott was sent in to hit for Coleman and did so with a single. Sam Hale, batting for Wolfer, delivered a second pinch hit in as many days. It was a single to right, which Elliott to third. Bodie's arm disposed of Sam trying to stretch it into a double. Pat scored Rowdy with a hit on Chadbourne, and Grumett popped.

Wheeler Dell pitched the second game, which leaves little to be said until the eighth when he blew. He was opposed by Biemiller, speed-ball artist, who used his twist mainly on J. Carlisle Smith. Twice he hurled a fast one in Smith's right at the plate. This caused the meringue within Smith to become turbulent. It was the punting of J. Carlisle, following a single by Chadbourne and Sargent's error, which led up to Vernon's run in the first frame.

Biemiller varied his attack by soaking Hughie High in the fifth, having found the speeding ball had no more effect on Smith than a tinny bullet against a concrete pill box. This blow on High had a heavy recoil, jarring a run out of Biemiller, Smith's sacrifice and Bodie's double doing the business.

TURN ON WHEELER. The Beavers, held to two hits, turned on Dell with violence in the eighth and finished up on Gilder. Seven hits, four of them for extra bases, and an error sent across six runs and shook the league from Utah to Golden Gate. Poole opened with a double and scored when Cox crashed one down too hot for Smith. Brazil singled to center. The ball spilled through Chadbourne, Cox counting the tying run and Brazil taking third. Sargent scored Brazil with a deep fly to Bodie.

Elliott doubled to center. Gilder then relieved Dell. Biemiller bumped the newcomer for a single, scoring Elliott after a wild pitch had put Rowdy on third. Wolfer with a right-field triple scored Biemiller. Faton doubled Wolfer across with the sixth run. Grumett grounded to French, whose throw to get Faton at third was late. Poole drove into a double play. Zeider to French to Hyatt. Brazil's single through High for two bases and Sargent's double in the ninth, and the sealing wait. The score:

STORM HITS CHICAGO HARD

City Paralyzed by Deluge; Wires Torn Down

Traffic Halted; Property Damage Heavy

Cloudburst Lasts Thirty Minutes; Sultry

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—For thirty minutes this afternoon Chicago was almost paralyzed by a terrific storm which partly isolated the city from outside communication.

hundreds of thousands of people were in the city, and the streets were flooded with water.

It was impossible to walk through the streets so heavy was the deluge. Great bolts of lightning seemed to fill the vista of the streets, and to play around the tops of the skyscrapers.

A great big blow of wind when lightning came in over the wires. Passengers were thrown into a panic and women were crushed and bruised in the mad rush for exits. Several of them were thrown to the floor, but none were seriously hurt.

Telephone and telephone wires all over the city were felled by the force of the wind or by falling trees. Nearly all the suburbs were cut off from communication, while wire companies frantically worked to repair the damage.

Wires Down

Many wires were down in Englewood, Hamilton Park, Beverly Hills, Oak Park, River Forest, Maywood, Norwood Park and La Grange and Riverdale.

Oak Park was completely isolated as the principal streets were filled with debris as the trees were blown over or felled by the lightning. Oak Park police and electricians were busy for an hour clearing the debris of the wires.

Street traffic was blocked in the city at West Ninety-fifth street and Vincennes avenue when two great trees were blown across the street. Similar conditions existed at West Ninety-fifth and Persia. Several fire companies were called out to clean up.

The storm was a climax to a day of intense heat which caused one death.

TEMPERATURE MOUNTS

All day long the heat, accompanied by a stifling humidity, had grown greater until at 3 o'clock it reached 71 degrees. At 4 o'clock it was back to 66 degrees, but the storm clouds began to gather over the city. With the breaking of the storm the thermometer fell to 56 degrees.

Chicago's torrid weather of the forenoon was general through the state and middle West. The heat in Springfield, reaching 85 degrees at 3 o'clock, was believed to be contributing cause of the death of a woman, wholesale lumber dealer.

Everywhere heat records were broken. Kansas City, Mo., with a temperature of 74 degrees, set a record more than at any time since 1915. Hannibal, Mo., also had its hottest day since 1915, reaching 92 degrees.

But it was over in the neighboring state of Kansas that the heat hit its running order and flowed over the top. For the fourth day Kansas claimed the high temperature record for the country, with degrees at Liberal, Anthony and Coldwater. It was 100 or above in almost every portion of the state.

Nebraska also had its hottest weather in four years. In Omaha the thermometer reached 101 degrees. Reports from Lincoln say that here in nearly all parts of the state has deteriorated because of the burning heat. Cutting for fodder has begun.

PAPAL BAN ON PASSION PLAY

closed doors to members of orders of monks, nuns and privileged audiences who will pay purely nominal charges, out of which the cost of presenting the play will be defrayed. This will be the original idea of this dramatic representation of the sufferings of Christ, but the Passion Play of 1932 is ruling in the streets in amounts beyond the dreams of the most successful theatrical producer of Manhattan.

There has been much learned dispute over the origin of the Passion Play from which emerges the fact that it is not a survival of a medieval mystery or miracle play. It took its rise from a vow by the inhabitants of Oberammergau in 1633 with a hope of staying a plague then raging. Original text and arrangements were made probably by the monks of Eibitz, a near-by monastery, but they were revised, mostly by the parish priest at the beginning of the present century when the play obtained exemption from the general suppression of such performances by the Bavarian government.

The music was composed by Richard Doderer, school master of the village in 1914.

The performances have always taken place on a Sunday in summer, which lasts about nine hours with a short intermission. About 700 actors are needed, all of whom belong to the village. Most of the principal parts have been hereditary in certain families. They have been assigned with regard to moral character as well as to dramatic ability. The play today with those preceding it is more striking when it is recalled that the villagers have regarded it as an act of religious worship and the performances were characterized by the greatest reverence.

REDS HELD AT COURT HEARING

wanted. In each case, as in the arrest of William E. Foster, head of the Trades Union Educational League, extradition papers were issued by the Governor of the State in which they are held in order that they may be brought back to Michigan for trial.

When the dragnet will have covered all those for whom warrants have been issued, not only the "twenty-seven," as the aggregation of Red leaders which have organized the nation through their revolutionary advocacy, have long been known, will be in custody, but many other leaders of later vintage as well.

Government officials here, two of them personal representatives of William J. Burr, director of the bureau of investigation of the United States Department of Justice, have no hesitations in saying that if convictions are obtained in each case and sentences to prison follow, dangerous radicalism will have been abolished throughout the country.

They base this belief on the mass of documentary evidence and important personal testimony which they have gathered to support their charges.

RECORDS SEIZED

Of the seventy-three persons who attended the moonlit convention in a spooky glade of a timbered valley near Bridgman last week, the personal portfolios and address books of seventy-two have fallen into the Federal investigators' hands. Scores of sheets of notes in the handwriting of the owners of these portfolios (all of the amalgamation of the Communist Party of America, a "red" underground organization, the Workers Party of America, the "legal and open" organization authorized personally by Lenin and Trotsky of Russia, the Friends of Soviet Russia, ostensibly a charitable organization, but in reality a definite link with the revolution) were seized.

It is admitted that the proposed Red member of the conference at Bridgman had been entrusted with the preparation of one branch of its development.

In the Red raids of 1930 in Chicago, there were tons of radical literature captured. This literature, in the main, printed matter, the present raid personal letters, memoranda, minutes of meetings and reports of committees form the preponderance of evidence which will be presented. The arraignment of the seventeen held here today was dramatic. All morning small knots of people had gathered around the County Jail—their talk buzzing with speculations as to what it was all about.

Promptly at the stroke of noon Federal officials and deputy sheriffs walked from the County Jail to stand on the sidewalk. A moment later two men, handcuffed together, came out of the doorway. They were Ruthenberg and Charles Krumboltz, the latter a Chicagoan, and an organizer for the Communist party. Krumboltz is now under sentence of imprisonment in Joliet penitentiary. The two smilingly posed for photographers, but they apparently did not oppose the idea of publicity—they were joined by others.

All then were taken to the City Hall, four blocks from the Jail, marching two abreast. Their appearance brought an unusual crowd of spectators—Benton Harbor, St. Joseph and surrounding communities were without doubt as curious as to these people who had appeared voluntarily in their midst to transmit business of such an underground nature that it brought an immediate raid and many arrests.

Waiting them on the second floor of the City Hall was Justice of the Peace Ray W. Davis and Prosecuting Attorney Charles W. Gore.

HANG YOUR CLOTHES ON LIMB, ETC.

Volva Posts Many Rules to Protect Morals of Zion City Bathers

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—Atlantic City, Deerville and all other popular watering places, take notice. Zion's bathing beaches, at least, are not "hell holes," as are so many others in the opinion of Volva Genna Volva, overseer of the North Shore City. And there's just one or two other things that henceforth will distinguish Zion's bathing beach from other places where folk desert in scanty bathing costumes.

Not the least important is a new ruling posted on prominently placed signboards, decreeing, among other things, that Zion's bathers must not, nay, dare not—

(1.) Go near husbands or wives while in the water.

(2.) Get nearer to members of the opposite sex than 100 feet.

(3.) Go in the water unless attended by a "buddy," with black stockings, shall be a complete cover, except that the arms may be bare to the elbows.

Furthermore, Zion authorities, taking no chance on the sinfulness of human nature, have separated the men and women bathers by the simple process of erecting barriers, with a long list of "do's" and "don'ts" posted on every ten feet. No father, male or female, Zion authorities have decreed, shall be seen on the beach or in the water unless attired in a suit made of closely woven, non-transparent material.

And finally comes the admonition: "Have your bathing suit made in such a way that when wet it will not cling to the body as would tight."

LOVE TRADE ACTORS NOT "GROWN UP"

Mother of Artist Says She Expects to Have to Keep Both if They Wed

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—"Mrs. Wakefield has a thousand virtues, but also a thousand faults. She and her son are both irresponsible. Neither has ever grown up, and if they marry, I expect I will have to keep them both." This was the statement made today by Mrs. Rodney Kendrick, mother of Rodney Kendrick, whose wife charges that Mrs. Edith Huntington Wakefield, actress, offered her $100 a month for him if she would divorce Kendrick and allow him to marry her.

"I have pleaded with them for two months, but to no avail," continued Mrs. Kendrick. "Kendrick would not listen and Edith just laughed. Rod's wife also ignored my advice. She said I was a fool. I would divorce him with no tie to go to Mrs. Wakefield's house, but she believed the affection between her husband and Mrs. Wakefield was too strong to be broken."

Throwing Rod and Edith together like that was like setting a match to a ton of powder.

The present $15,000 alimony suit which Mrs. Kendrick plans to bring against Mrs. Wakefield has not yet been filed. It probably will be ready for filing on Friday.

INDIAN'S VOICE MOVES THIEVES

Converted Oriental Fields Magical Influence

Tells How Eloquence Saved His Life and Property

Britain Depends on Convert to Pacify India

BY EVAN GRIFFITH

(BY CABLE-REUTERS SERVICE)

LONDON, Aug. 24.—Perhaps the most wonderful preacher who ever expounded the doctrine of Christianity in London is a convert to the faith from another and an alien race and belief—Sundar Singh, full-blooded Indian, known as the "famous Hindu," whose clear thinking, marvelous voice and matchless eloquence have swept his audiences into whirlwinds of emotional enthusiasm.

His return to London after a sojourn in his native India, where he went to try to stem the tide of revolutionary sentiment, has caused the greatest interest, and usually thousands of Indians have reached the men who previously managed his sojourn here for details as to where he will be heard this time.

To all such inquiries it has been necessary to make the answer that this time he will not be heard at all, because his work has led him to a new and more important task. He has made it necessary for him to lay up for a long rest in some cool and quiet spot.

This is not a new idea to religious London. He has been converted to Christianity in his sixteenth year.

His amazing Indian preacher of Christianity is a splendid human figure, standing over six feet tall, with a broad forehead and a pair of large, dark eyes.

The only 22 years old, and was converted to Christianity in his sixteenth year.

He was immediately cast out by all his Hindu relatives. This, with other humiliations and worse, he accepted with sad calm, but never swayed from his determination.

Since January 1 he has been preaching on the continent of Europe, and has been able in each country to address his audience in their native tongue.

This was not a few years ago, yet he answered as did the ancient Christian martyrs, that he got his inheritance from his faith, and he was forthwith released with superstitious awe.

From that time on in that province he was safe, for he bore the reputation of leading a charmed life—which he fully believes was the case, and will be upon similar occasions in the future—occasions to which he looks forward without dread.

Another miraculous escape occurred last year. He tells of it thus:

"I was on my way to Lahore, the capital of India, accompanied by two natives. In a lonely spot a wild yak, which is something like an American buffalo, attacked us. We escaped by climbing the steeply sloping sides of a great rock, a feat which normally would have been physically impossible.

The yak took up position at the foot of the rock and watched our every movement. The natives were entirely certain that our escape was sealed, for our footing was precarious and we chanced to have been attacked at a time when we were thirsty and we had not water in our bottles.

"We had given up hope when some wild natives appeared and drove the yak away.

"Our delight vanished, however, when it developed that they were a band of those assassin-robbers who are sometimes met with in that country.

"They bound us and dragged us to their cave, took all our money and clothes and unquestionably were preparing to kill us. At length, after we had been stripped, one of the robbers turned to me, saying: 'Is that all you have?'

"I told him that I had one more thing to give him—a piece of my mind.

"He laughed and for half an hour I preached the Gospel to him and the whole caveful of robbers.

FORMER MAYOR UNDER ARREST

Alleged Dealer Charges Own With Obstructing Sidewalk

(BY A. P. NEWS WIRE.)

YOUNGSTOWN (O.) Aug. 24.—George Oles, who resigned as Mayor two months ago after a stormy administration, today was arrested and taken to the police station in a patrol wagon to face charges of obstructing the sidewalk in front of his government market.

The complaint was made by Morris Squires, proprietor of a rival market. The former Mayor gave bond of $10 for his appearance at a hearing.

giving them something to think over with regard to the religion which I was expounding to them.

"They got the gospel very plainly, very earnestly, very severely. Finally they got into a state of mind which made them realize that at least, perhaps before us. They returned everything they had stolen from us and let us pass upon our way."

Sundar Singh is strongly out of sympathy with the Indian revolutionists, feeling that they are being misled by outside influences which are not for their own good.

He is intensely anxious that India should remain loyal to a part of the British empire and unquestionably has been and will be of great value to the British in showing them how to manage their rule of the vast millions of the discontented so as to bring them back to peace and quiet.

His Indian friends would keep him in Europe for a solid year, so numerous are they, and he has been urged by several American church organizations to go to the United States this autumn.

It is with deep regret that he decides against this project.

As soon as he has fully recovered his health in the comparatively cool British climate, he will return to India, there to take up his task of evangelization with renewed vigor and with the determination to still further pursue his efforts to keep his fellow Indians true to the British empire.

GUATEMALAN ROAD ASKS ACCOUNTING

CATION IS FILED IN FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT AT SAN FRANCISCO

(BY A. P. NEWS WIRE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—An action to compel Adolfo Stahl, San Francisco capitalist, and the American Finance and Commerce Company to give an accounting of the finances of the Ocos Railroad Company of Guatemala during the time that they were in charge of the property, was filed in the United States District Court today by C. A. Darling of New York, and eighteen residents of Guatemala.

The complaint alleges that the railroad was incorporated in 1895 for $1,543,546 and was constructed at an actual cost of $1,560,000. In 1902, the defendant, according to the complaint, obtained control of the system in an irregular manner, and were enabled to hold it only through the co-operation of President Estrada Cabrera. Various suits to break the control were attempted without result, the complaint said.

In 1909, the complaint avers, the defendants sold the road for $1,000,000 after realizing an additional $1,000,000 in revenues. Despite the sale it was impossible to bring an accounting action until Cabrera was overthrown by a revolution in 1920, and it was deemed to prepare an action for trial here based upon an accounting which has been ordered by the Guatemalan courts.

L. Hibbard, general manager, the notice reads:

UNIONS FOR SOLIDARITY

SEWER PLAN ADVOCATED
BY SURGEONHealth Officer Condemns Present Open Ditch as Breeder of Epidemics

[RECEIVED DISPATCH]

Strongly urging support for the new sewerage disposal plan, Surgeon

J. G. Evans, medical officer in charge of the United States Public

Health Service here, yesterday branded the present condition of the sewerage system in Los Angeles

as deplorable. Surgeon Evans declared that there is nothing more important to the welfare of the city

than the proper disposal of its sewage, and that the open ditch which became a necessity last winter in the southwestern part of the city, is a disgrace and constitutes a menace and a serious nuisance.

"If an economic side of your

nature exists itself on election day

Tuesday, practice it on something which will not be a menace to our city, as it is more expensive to have an epidemic than to prevent one, and to better investment can be made than protecting the community from preventable diseases," said Surgeon Evans.

"It is the duty of the citizens to vote next Tuesday for the $12,-

000,000 issue of sewer bonds and place Los Angeles among the for-most cities in matters of sanitation."

People and Their Troubles

AS A WOMAN THINKETH

BY HELEN ROWLAND

WHAT ARE YOU GETTING OUT OF LIFE?

I know an actress, who has worked and struggled and toiled, day and night, for twenty years—

Worked in illness and health, in loneliness and sorrow, and even in the shadow of death—

Struggled through storm and sleet and snow and rain and biting winds—

Undaunted, unafraid, undragging, indomitable!

And out of it all she has wrung from life:

A fame that rings from coast to coast;

A name that opens the doors of cottages and palaces alike to her;

Flowers, jewels, plaudits and the noisy adoration of the crowd;

And, above all, the fine, thrilling thrill—the ecstatic thrill that only the artist can ever know—of work well done!

I know a woman writer, who has slaved and cringed at her desk for twenty years;

Who has fought and hoped and suffered and despaired, and sometimes starved—

And yet has won!

And out of it all she has reaped the satisfying joy of doing the work she loved to do.

The friendship and affection of many stimulating, radiant people—of poets and painters and statesmen;

A satisfying financial independence, a country home, a motor car, the quiet devotion of a world full of readers;

And a vast contentment with life!

And yet,

Neither of these is the hardest-worked woman I know.

I know a little woman who has fought her way up the social ladder, round by round, who has worked like a stoker in the social engine, morning, noon and night—eighteen hours a day, for twenty years!

Who has trodden the dreary round of the "squirrel cage" day after day—shops, dressmakers, milliners, luncheon, bridges, teas, and dull, deadly dinner parties.

Who has suffered the pangs of eternal boredom, endured innumerable snubs and been torn with the pangs of rage, jealousy and disappointment.

Who has sacrificed her health, her youth, her looks, her old friends and her poor patient husband on the altar of her ambition!

And, out of all of it, she has managed to get:

A bowing acquaintance with half a dozen celebrities;

A bad case of chronic dyspepsia, and about fourteen thousand cups of weak tea!

And sometimes,

After I have been to a particularly stupid party,

And have come home feeling as frustrated and weary as the man who killed himself making a million,

I am tempted to ask, as he did with his last breath,

"Say Doc, what's it all about, anyway?"

Because, after all, the greatest problem of life consists in making what you get out of it.

Balance with what you put into it!

And, on that theory, the life of the Social Climber is a total loss!

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR GIRL

There is no doubt that alcohol did "shorten a man's days"—but, think how it lengthened and brightened his nights, dear heart!

The wages of sin we all expect to pay; but when it comes to paying the price of our foolish mistakes, we can't help feeling that Fate is a heartless fronteer!

You may cross lances with a beauty, as woman to woman; but when you fight a blonde, you need all the fairness on your side—for you are fighting a chessman-masculine tradition.

The kind of girl that a man should marry is not the one who makes a dazzling impression, by ordering French dishes and a special salad dressing, but the one who looks carefully down the price list and

Q. Several years ago an Indian peach seed was planted and this year it bore its first fruit. Part of the fruit on the same twig is the Indian peach and part is October plum. This tree has not been grafted nor budded. What causes the two kinds of fruit?

A. W. C. W. Agriculture says that what you describe is a peach tree which occasionally a peach tree produces fruit of this kind. They think that if the roots have been budded with some other variety, this sport would not have been the result.

Q. When playing a double-header which game is considered the regular day's ball game?

A. O. L. Whenever necessity demands that two games be played in one afternoon, the first game shall be the regularly scheduled game for that day.

Q. When was the Manston House built?

A. F. W. If you refer to the official residence of the Lord Mayor of London, this dwelling place was built between 1739 and 1753.

Q. Can eggs that have been put down in water glass be moved safely from one place to another in an automobile?

A. V. F. The Poultry Division says that eggs which have been preserved in water glass may be moved from place to place provided you are very careful not to crack any of the eggs as the broken ones will spoil the solution.

Q. What is a lowboy?

A. L. C. This is a small table with one or two rows of drawers, so called in contradistinction to the tallboy or double chest of drawers. Both were favorite pieces of furniture in the eighteenth century in England and America. The lowboy was generally used as a dressing-table, but occasionally as a side table.

Q. How many rounds did Willard and Johnson fight when Willard won the heavyweight title? Also Jeffries and Johnson when Johnson won the title?

A. J. M. O. The Willard and Johnson fight was twenty-six rounds and the Jeffries and Johnson fight was fifteen rounds.

Q. In five towns in different sections of the State, it is nearly thirty years since I was secretary of one of the Colorado men's Republican clubs to be organized there, after suffrage had been freely given to the women of the State by the splendid Colorado men.

A. Later, I was president of a large club of Republican women who did valiant service throughout a Presidential campaign. I have served as a member of the executive committee of the Republican State Central Committee. I have been a member of various organizations of women—was for five years regent of a large chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, of which I was also organizing regent.

Q. I am aware that these "T's" may remind you of the egotism of Hiram, but in this way I am phrasing the fact that I have a wide and intimate acquaintance with the men and women of Colorado. They are a reading, thinking, class, high-minded, loyal, patriotic.

Q. Once let them know the truth with regard to Hiram Johnson's record, the puddin' headed idiot that invented the central entrance street car? By what contortion of logic did he expect crowds to move in and out? Was it the same idiot who insisted that a river could run up hill, a stone could fall upward or a pawnbroker, would give you too much change? I have just returned from a trip to Los Angeles, where I rode on one of them. My toes are black and blue, my face red, my Palm Beach I don't know what color. I could hardly get out. My only explanation is that there "Old Bill" there is a group of old fellows at this beach that while watching the sun, of life go down, put in their time fishing and filling their pipes. One effort is about as great as the other. Old Bill was a great favorite with these gentlemen. One especially lucky Inak Walton, Bill chose for his right bower. He would come sailing in from somewhere off the ocean, light on the end of wharf No. 3, and waddle down the plank to the beach. If he found the wharf was crowded as it was many times Bill would poke his way in between the fishermen until room was made for him to watch proceedings. Here he would peer intently at the tip of the pole and when a strike was made Old Bill was there and it took some rapid work for the fisherman to rescue his catch. There was another pelican with a broken bill that hovered on the outer

DEPUTY'S WIFE AGAIN NAMED

Investigate the charges against the deputy and his wife, the affidavit of Mr. Beecher came to light.

TALKED IN COURT

He charges in this document that Mrs. McCartney announced in the courtroom while counsel for State and defense were endeavoring to secure unbiased jurors, that she had been guilty and that she had a great deal of new testimony which they were going to use. She also said, the affidavit states, that she had several friends on the jury panel and that they would, in all probability, vote for conviction.

GETS AUTO, BUT NOT SAFE

Harbor Commission President Wrests Away Control of Machine and Fails on Strong Box Key

President McKee of the Board of Harbor Commissioners wrested away from Secretary Wade of the board, exclusive control, possession and operation of the commission's post automobile, "Dancing Waves," alias "Neptune III." But Secretary Wade still clings to the key of the board's iron safe.

This was the status yesterday of the trouble between the two officers of the board after weeks of discussion back and forth. When President McKee took office he found that under time-honored tradition the secretary of the board ran the official automobile, and also carried the key to the office safe. President McKee chewed miles of gum and ate tons of peppermints in an effort to find a method of securing possession of these two objects, but to no avail.

SEEKS HIGH HILLS

Then Secretary Wade went on his vacation. As a hearty mountaineer he hid himself far away from Harbor Board troubles and sought peace and quiet in the heart of the High Sierras. Just before he left, President McKee asked Mr. Wade, innocently, "May I have the key to the board's automobile while you are away?" "Sure," said the agreeable Mr. Wade. And he handed over the key.

When Secretary Wade returned the board's automobile seemed to be always somewhere else when he wanted it. President McKee, on one man in the courtroom who, she said, were investigators from the District Attorney's office. She told me that they were there to find out how the jurors felt. Before she told me who these people were I had seen at least three or four of them talking with prospective jurors, and saw one of them, a woman, talking to a woman who was afterward selected and sat as a juror in the case.

Five other affidavits are in possession of the committee. These were prepared by jury members trying Mrs. Obenchain on the charge of murdering J. Belton Kennedy. They were presented to the court a week ago and were instrumental in the ordering of an investigation. While there is no connection between the two sets of documents, both contain similar charges.

COUNCIL AUTHORIZES CITY BAND CONCERTS

Band concerts at Sycamore Grove and at the Los Angeles Harbor district were authorized yesterday by the City Council which appropriated $890 to provide for concerts during the remainder of the summer. There is an understanding that the Greater Highland Park Association and the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce will each contribute $245, or a total amount equal to that to be expended by the city. The two organizations have agreed to contribute this share of the necessary expense.

Young Burglar Admits Killing Woman in Home

Valentine Radecki, 20 years old, charged with the murder of Mrs. Nancy M. Wheelock during a burglary last April 29, yesterday pleaded guilty to the killing of the woman before Judge Houser. According to the theory of the officers, Radecki choked the woman to death when he was found robbing her home. The man asked the court to impose immediate sentence.

MAKES THREAT IN COURT

Murder Case Witness Shouts from Stand, "I'll Get You, Wolfson"

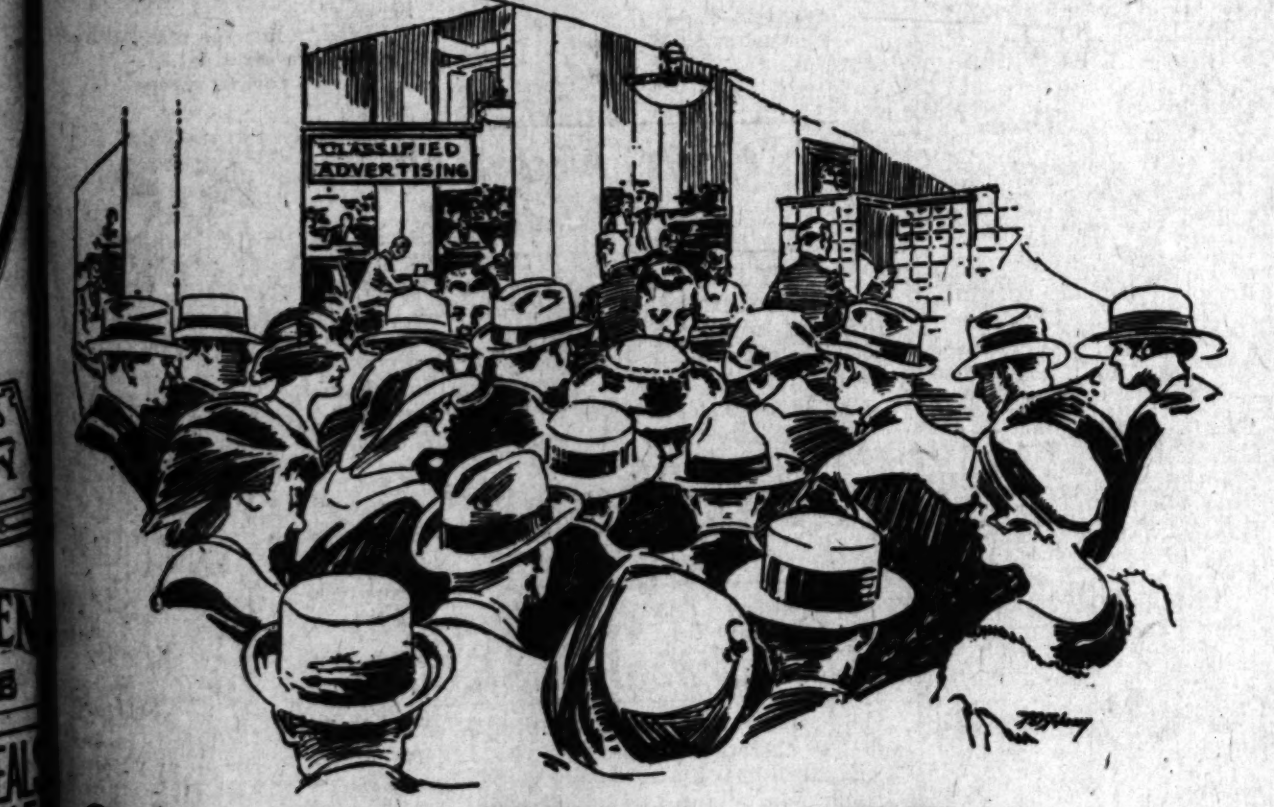

During the threat that he would "get" Morris Wolfson, M. Baker, in behalf of Herbert Wilson, accused of the murder of Herbert Wilson, a sensation in Judge J. Perry Wood's court yesterday as he stood on the stand at the conclusion of his testimony. Baker's outburst on the second day of the trial, one being precipitated earlier when Wolfson, wife of the slain man, arose in the spectators' seats and accused him of lying.

POSITIVE OF GUILT

In his affidavit Mr. Beecher says that Mrs. McCartney said that she was positive that Mrs. Obenchain was guilty. The man states that he asked why and she replied, "so the affidavit says, that there was a great deal of new testimony concerning a convict, and the letters that passed between them."

SOUND JURY

"During our conversation," the affidavit concludes, "Mrs. McCartney pointed out to me five women and one man in the courtroom who, she said, were investigators from the District Attorney's office."

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters, M.D.

Author of "Diet and Health, with Key to the Calories"

I, I, I, MYSELF: I THE HISTORY OF ME BY ME

CHAPTER XXIII A WORRY STORY

Last week we had a terrible excitement at our house when I spat up a little bit of blood which I had nursed from the little crack in my mama's nipple. Mama was so upset thinking that I had some serious disease that she really made herself ill from it, and the curious thing was that while I was not ill before, I was terribly ill afterward!

Instead of spitting up a little of my milk which I do occasionally, I vomited up a lot of it and I had diarrhea and I felt sumptin' terrible. Doctor said that it was wholly due to the change that took place in my milk because mama had been so terribly upset and worried over my spitting up the blood. Isn't that strange?

Doctor says that it is not unusual at all for babies to be upset when mama is upset, and my Charlie says that it has taught her a big lesson.

It was lucky mama got our doctor before she got off to her medical convention, because that little crack might have been the means of both mama and me having a very serious case of cholera, and being ill myself so much, but I would feel terribly if my mama should be ill on account of my being such a greedy baby and drawing so lustily on my milk that I made mama's nipple tender. Mama takes all the blame for this, however. She won't let me take any of it. She says that if she had kept something on the nipple to keep it soft and moist between my nursings after it got tender that it probably would not have cracked.

We got the lead nipple shields at the drug store as doctor directed and mama washed the nipple very carefully each time, and I did not nurse so long on that breast as usual during this time.

These lead nipple shields, Doctor says, have proved very helpful, and she says uses them. Many other physicians also advise them and in the great Lying-in Hospital

200 members during the first part of this week. Mrs. Clara Collins has been holding meetings each week in her home. Mrs. Virginia Carroll, Miss Maud Phillips and Mrs. Sarah Davis and Mrs. E. Edwards are other members of this group doing active work.

RIGHT-HAND TURN TO BE CONSIDERED

COUNCIL COMMITTEE URGED TO PERMIT BREAKING OF TRAFFIC LINE

The Public Safety Committee of the City Council will at its meeting next Monday afternoon consider the recommendation of the Los Angeles Traffic Commission that vehicles be permitted to make at all times a right-hand turn at street intersections outside of the congested district, regardless of whether or not the police officer at the intersection is "turned the driver of the vehicle desiring to make a right-hand turn is standing."

The traffic commission believes that the change should be ordered for a period of ninety days and that if it results in speeding up the movement of traffic without endangering other drivers or pedestrians, the change should be made permanent.

It is expected that a special committee from the commission will be present at the committee's meeting next Monday and urge that the commission's recommendation be given a trial.

RUGS STOLEN FROM CHURCH

Three rugs valued at $175 and a small sum in cash were taken by burglars who early yesterday morning broke into the First United Brotherhood Church at 633 West Seventeenth street, according to a report made by Rev. H. C. Shaffer, pastor, to the University Police Station.

Guards Save Girl Caught by Rip Tide

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

LONG BEACH, Aug. 24.—Miss Irma Lillard, 25 years old, of 64 1/2 Ontario street, this city, is the newest victim of tide rips at Long Beach. She was rescued from the surf near Mohegan camp by Life Guards B. F. Wood and B. F. Witt late yesterday afternoon. It was revealed in reports at the Police Station today.

The young woman was being carried out to sea by a strong rip against which she was unable to battle when the life guards went to her aid. After a long struggle the guards brought her to the beach, where she was resuscitated and taken to her home.

Tide rips are especially strong at this time, and will continue so for two or three days more, it was said today by Capt. Miller, commanding the life guard detail here.

Annual Outing is Enjoyed by Optimist Club

Members of the Optimist Club of Los Angeles, who have a habit of looking on the brighter side of life, joined with old Sol yesterday in making the day the brightest and happiest of 1932. Under the direction of O. A. Smith and L. S. Rounsvell, 110 members of the club, their wives, mothers, sisters and sweethearts motored to the Uplifters' ranch in Santa Monica Canyon for their annual outing.

Tennis, horseshoes, pitching and other games were enjoyed until the celebrants grew weary of physical culture and sat down to develop their mental faculties with bridge. A feature of the day was the excellent breakfast dinner served at 6:30 p.m., which was followed by music and dancing.

SOCIETY

BY VIRGINIA WOODS

Beautiful Garden Wedding

The gardens at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Eisenmayer, 3754 San Rafael Heights, were the setting of a beautiful wedding yesterday afternoon when their daughter, Miss Corinne Eisenmayer, became the bride of John O'Melveny, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. O'Melveny of this city.

Father Conaty officiated. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a girlish gown of rose point lace, fashioned with a court train of white satin. Her long tulle veil was crowned with orange blossoms and her shower bouquet was of white orchids.

Miss Agnes Eisenmayer was her sister's maid of honor and wore a frock simply fashioned of pale blue chiffon with picture hat of orchids. She carried a bouquet of orchids.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Edgar Gail Miller, Mrs. William Lyman Stewart, Jr., and Miss Florence Marsh. They wore frocks of pale pink chiffon with hats to match, and their bouquets were of pink roses and blue delphinium.

Stuart O'Melveny stood with his bride. Others kept on auspicious lotions such as boric acid, mixture of bismuth and castor oil, etc.

It is highly important to keep a cracked nipple antiseptic, because germs which cause inflammation think a crack is an open doorway inviting them in, and they go in and get into the milk glands. And since they thrive on milk just as we babies do, they grow and grow and have big families and cause a lot of trouble unless they are ousted.

Mama discovered a little tender red spot in her breast which showed that some of these germs had gone in and were beginning to settle down. The redness showed that the blood had come there to try to kill them off. Doctor said that we would have to help out 'em, so she had mama gently massage the spot and then put large hot compresses for twenty minutes every two hours or the breast. This brought more of the protective blood to the place and it did kill 'em off, for the spot disappeared in a day or so.

Physicians apply ice-bags at this state and apparently freeze the germs out, but my doctor says she has had better results in her cases by making it too hot for 'em.

AUTO THIEF FORGOT HE STOLE CAR

Sends Letter With Key, Location of Machine After Eight Months

College professors and scientific pursuers of butterflies have for some time been given the publicity for being consistently absent-minded. John F. Powell of the Powell Investigating Bureau thinks they should divide their laurels with an auto thief he has heard from, but not located.

This particular crook, says Powell, stole an expensive machine from Mrs. Pearl Ballard of 627 1/2 Hollywood Boulevard last December. For eight months a search for the car was fruitless. Yesterday Powell said he received an anonymous letter from a man who said: "There is a Nash car at garage, Caluenga avenue, No. 1966, north one. It was stolen. Get it and notify insurance company."

Following directions Powell said he found the car in a dilapidated place in a hollow, near Caluenga Pass. It was covered with dust and spiders had spun webs between the car and the walls of the shack. Apparently, said Powell, the crook after placing the stolen car in the shack had forgotten about it until yesterday. The key of the car was contained in the letter.

A BECOMING DRESS FOR THE GROWING GIRL

School days scarcely ended are soon to commence again. Sad as that fact is to youngsters it is true indeed and the new frocks one is getting now must be considered practical enough to wear later on in the classroom. This one that is shown in plaid gingham and trimmed with organdie could also be made of serge for colder days. It is so simply made for you could finish a frock like this in about three afternoons and all it would cost you, if you made it of gingham at 40c per yard with organdie trimmings at the same price per yard, would be about $1.70.

The pattern No. 1482 cuts in sizes 10, 12, 14, 16 and 18 years. Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards 36-inch material with 1 1/4 yards 36-inch contrasting. Price 15c, stamps or coin (coin preferred).

When you order your pattern, we think it would pay you to enclose 10 cents extra to receive a copy of our SUMMER FASHION MAGAZINE which shows about 400 styles, including several pages of embroidery designs, and contains a seven-lesson course in dressmaking.

No patterns are sent in the Los Angeles office of The Times. To get patterns send the price, in stamps or well-wrapped coin, and the number and size of the patterns desired to this department.

"A sun turtle, eh?" commented the court.

FLASHES

ALMOST MARRIED

WILLIAM RUSSELL TAKES

AWFUL CHANCE IN FILM

By Grace Kingsley

This is the tale of how William Russell, gallant young Fox star, came near to making a bigamist of a perfectly respectable young married woman, and incidentally all involuntarily and you might say innocently, a benedict of himself. It is only thanks to the leniency of a kind providence and the stringency of the California marriage laws that he still is in full possession of his liberty and his own latch-key.

It all came about through a scene in his current picture yesterday when a marriage ceremony was performed with Russell and his leading lady, Eva Novak, as the principals. True to form, a gentleman in clerical garb performed the ceremony. He read so impressively that when he was finished, Russell exclaimed that he read the service exactly like a real preacher.

"I am," explained the other calmly. "Then—Jehosaphat—" began Russell in alarm. "Well," smiled the minister, "if we were in Alaska it would be a real marriage. But in California a marriage license is essential."

Russell wiped his brow. "And the lady is a married woman—and a bride, moreover!" he exclaimed. The minister who played minister in the picture is a clerical gentleman who has retired from active service but who having some motion picture friends has been persuaded occasionally to perform a marriage ceremony or a baptism in the movies.

And while we are speaking of Mr. Russell, it may be interesting to his friends to learn that the star is to take a trip to Honolulu following the completion of his present picture.

Emil Chautard With U. Emil Chautard has been engaged by Universal. He will direct an all-star Universal-Jewel dramatization of "Freaking All Others," a magazine sensation of Mary Lenner.

Charlie Chaplin strings right along with John Payne when it comes to thinking that there is no place like home, and consequently he has been spending hours daily overhauling the erection of his new residence at Beverly Hills.

Yesterday, however, he tore himself away from his pal, the architect and carpenter, and went over to Catalina to do some fishing. He expects to be gone a week or ten days.

On his return, the comedian will at once busy himself industriously with launching Edna Purviance in her first independent starring picture, the story of which will be a straight comedy-drama of American social life. After this he will start work on his first United Artists film.

Now comes the question as to who will be Chaplin's new leading woman. So far nobody has been chosen, and yesterday it was rumored that the leading lady of the picture may be a little girl. The story is an original, and the comedians, who are considered, will take his derby and comic pants out of the moth balls to wear in the film.

Here and There. Arthur Jassmine has withdrawn the light of his countenance from the Pilgrimage Play in order to go into pictures.

Desire Love has been re-engaged by Director Frederick G. Becker to play the leading feminine role in the second two-reeler of the series featuring the little Arthur Trimble, child star.

Actor is Rescued. That life is not all beer, let alone skittles, in the movies, is testified to once more, this time by Frank Mayo, Universal star.

Down at Balboa, a day or two ago, Mayo and his company met with an accident when the yacht Cheapsa in which they were making scenes for Mayo's current picture went aground a quarter of a mile from shore and turned over on her side. So sudden was the accident that Frank Mayo and his director, Lambert Hillier, and cameramen, were compelled to jump into the surf to save themselves, but were picked up by a lifeboat manned by the yacht's crew.

Into the Desert. If you think that enterprising young film concern, the Marx Brothers Pictures Company, doesn't mean business, you're all wrong. The company, headed by Richard Dix, Eddie Gribbon and Cecil De Mille, are leaving today for Arizona, where scenes for their initial picture, "The Border Patrol," will be made.

The director, Jack Conway, and his assistant, James Hogan, with the cameramen, have already arrived at their destination. They traveled 600 miles by motor across the desert to the Ninth United States Cavalry post in Arizona, close to the Mexican border. The company carried with them several truckloads of sets, also. A telegram received at the United States yesterday stated the journey, though terribly hot and uncomfortable, had been made without mishap.

Other members of the cast who will leave today are J. Farrell MacDonald and Tom Wilson. J. F. Bennett is the production manager. "This is the country God forgot," all right," writes Conway, "but the other fellow's memory was all right."

Fox Film at Loew's. When Loew's State enters on its new policy of showing only feature pictures, instead of combined bills of vaudeville and films, at present, it is likely that Fox films will be among those exhibited, negotiations to that end being on now between Marcus Loew and William Fox.

Noah, Jr., Said It. It's hard to get ahead of that lively young gentleman, Noah Beery, Jr., son of the noted screen villain.

Young Beery recently became quite set up because he was called for an "extra" role, and received $5 for his day's work. A few days later, another director saw Mike, the Belgian police dog belonging to the Beeries, and commanded the animal for four days, paying $5 a day for his services.

Young Noah's chums heard about the matter.

"Yah!" they jeered, "you only got $5 and they paid your ole dog $5! What a fine actor you are!"

"Oh, that's nothing," answered

JUMP NEARLY FATAL FOR STAR

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

ITHACA (N. Y.) Aug. 23.

While riding Buckshot, one of her favorite jumpers over the practice course east of the Cornell campus this morning, Irene Castle Tremaine suffered serious injuries that will confine her to her home for the next eight weeks and compel her to cancel her entries in several horse shows, as well as delay her motion picture and dancing contracts.

Mrs. Tremaine, who has been spending much of her summer at her home here, planned to enter six thoroughbred jumpers in the horse show at the State fair at Syracuse at Rochester, and later in New York City. It has been her custom to ride these horses every morning to tune them up for coming exhibitions.

Today she chose Buckshot for her mount. The accident occurred as the horse attempted to clear a five-foot jump. He stumbled and fell, and Mrs. Tremaine was pinned underneath the steed. A groom hastened to her aid and soon extricated her.

Young Beery manfully, "I hear Charlie Valentino is worth more money than the President!"

Channing Pollock, author of "The Fool," recently produced at the Majestic by Thomas Wilkes, writes me that he expects to put "The Fool" on in New York about October 15.

The playwright will sail for Europe early in November to do the play in London, where it was first produced. Later he will visit the Orient.

New Universal Serial. They are certainly busy boys out at Universal when it comes to thinking up new and startling ideas for serials. Now it is "Around the World in Eighty Days," a serial in which the hero, a young man, is to attain deathless celluloid fame.

The story is being dramatized by Carl Koolidge under the supervision of Bob Dillon, chief of the short-reel feature editor at Universal City. J. P. McElwan will direct, although the name of the star has not yet been announced.

Inasmuch as Jules Verne's fertile imagination conjured up airships long before they really happened, he may be said to be a real contemporary writer, and airships will enter into the action of the story. Which it to an extent based upon the "Eighty Days Around the World."

Irving G. Thalberg, director-general of Universal City, has opened negotiations with one of the most popular stars of the screen for the heroic role of the hero. When he is finally engaged, a suitable cast will be selected and production started.

LUBOVISKI BOWL SOLOIST TONIGHT. Alfred Hertz will conduct a program Friday night which measures up to the high standard which he has maintained all during the summer season at the Bowl. Calum Luboviski, whose popularity as a violin soloist and member of the excellent Los Angeles Trio, has made his playing with the summer symphony of more than usual interest, will render the Max Bruch G Minor concerto with the orchestra.

Mr. Hertz has selected the Saint-Saens "Dance Macabre" for this concert, and the dramatic effectiveness of this number will gain in its presentation to the silent listeners in the dark hollow of the hall. Weber's "Invitation to the Dance" is a number of graceful elegance and contrast, and the concert will close with the spirited "Racoon" march, that thrilling Hungarian air which Berlioz has so ably orchestrated.

Saturday night the program is all of a light and amiable mood. The feature of this number will be the charming by appearing in person and addressing the audience.

NEW COMIC CONCERN. Featuring Max Mott as star, a new comedy company has been organized to work at the United Studios. Playing opposite the star is Bebe Ellen, known as "Little Miss Smiles." She is 21 months old. There is also Buster, the dog, who will help contribute to the humor of the films. The company is known as the Sam Mott Productions, from the executive head, who has lately been working in the Richard Walton Tully Company.

PLANS LONG ABSENCE

MEIGHAN WILL MAKE TWO FILMS IN THE EAST

By Edwin Schallert

While it was his original intention to remain in New York for only one feature, it is probable that Thomas Meighan will now film two stories in the East. One of these is, of course, George Ade's "Back Home and Back," the other, yet to be selected, will be adapted from some successful stage play now being staged in the eastern city.

Nor is Meighan to go East solo. Director Al Green naturally will accompany him, because he has been making all the recent Meighan pictures. Two of the principal players are also to go East with the star, one of these being Lila Lee. Lawrence Wheat is the other.

The Meighan unit will probably set out in about ten days or two weeks. The star will stop over for a short visit at Ade's home in Indiana, en route, to discuss the plans for the story. His intention is to remain in New York for about three months.

Valentino Dismissed. A persistent rumor is going the rounds to the effect that Rodolph Valentino is temperamentally dissatisfied with his present arrangement with Famous Players-Lasky and is seeking to secure a better contract. Valentino is now in New York, according to advice from the East. An route he stopped over for a few days at the lodge in the Hudson in the Adirondacks. Simultaneously it was officially given out in the East that Winifred Hudnut, whom he recently married according to Mexican law, had sailed for Europe.

New Fall Program. This is the season of predictions and fall announcements and the outlook in the film circle is more radiant than usual. The various theaters are making their program for the season, and in each instance there appears a large share of the bigger features.

The California Theater has scheduled a number of important films, including "The Wonderful Adventure," starring Diana Manners; "The Sign of the Cross," starring George Brent and combining a stage presentation with the picture; Rupert Hughes's "Reverence," starring John Barrymore, and starring John Barrymore, Helen Chadwick and Helen Chadwick play the principal director; Maurice Tourneur featuring Helen Ferguson, Bryant Washburn and others; "Brothers Under the Skin," with Claire Windsor, Pat O'Malley, Helene Chadwick and Norman Kerry are principals, and other pictures.

With the beginning of the new series of Lloyd Hamilton comedies and seven being Jack White Mervin productions. With the beginning of the new series of Lloyd Hamilton comedies for educational release Mr. Mayo has been signed to direct "Gage" for Hamilton alone. The first of the new comedies is "The Speeder" and the second, which has just been completed, is "No Luck."

LENA BAKKETTE A HIT. Word has been received here that Lena Bakette, the brilliant local dancer, ran away with the bill with the opening of her act in San Francisco. Miss Bakette, playing Keith time, she is principal dancer with the Ed Janis revue, a top-notch act. According to present schedule, the act will open at the Palace Theater, New York, late in September, and then will head West. The dancer, a protégé of Ernest Balcher of the Celeste School of Dancing, was prima ballerina of the opera "Carmen" in the Hollywood Bowl.

"THE SHREK OF ARABY." Mack Bennett's comedy triumph, "The Shrek of Araby," in which Ben Turpin is the star, with Miss Kathryn McGuire playing the leading feminine role, has been completed. A truly all-star cast, including some of the screen's best-known comedy artists, were engaged for this picture. F. Ritchard Jones directed. The cutting and editing will be completed so that "The Shrek of Araby" will be ready for distribution through First National during the early part of the fall. This is the second picture in which Turpin has stepped entirely out of his usual characterization, but with surprisingly good result.

BRIGHT REID CAST. The supporting cast for Wallace Reid's "Thirty Days," which was started yesterday under the direction of James Cruze, includes Wanda Hawley, who is leading woman; Cyril Chadwick, Herschel Mayall, Carmen Phillips, Helen Dunbar, Kalla Pasha and others.

Bennett Sends Greeting. Richard Bennett has enjoyed his stay in Los Angeles. A letter from the noted stage actor, who has been playing a starring engagement at the Majestic Theater, Lila Lee. Prominent in Current and Coming Shows. Gladys Brockwell, returning to screen next week in "Paid Back, Superba; Bobbie Pender to appear in Panthea's vaudeville; and Lila Lee in "Blood and Sand," Grauman's Rialto.

was received by the dramatic department of The Times yesterday, and it is a little classic of appreciation. It runs as follows: "Before my departure eastward I want through your columns to thank Los Angeles for again receiving me into her arms. I've known for a long time of her beauty, but I don't believe I have ever really appreciated the magnificence of her hospitality. I like your over-outstretched hand, fair Los Angeles. (Signed) "Richard Bennett."

NEW CAMERAMAN. David Kesson, 21-year-old cameraman for Marshall Neilan productions, burst all the buttons off his vest yesterday through over-expansion of the chest. Also his hat was suddenly discovered to be too sizes too small. At 5:35 p.m. Dave became a daddy. It's a boy, seven and a half pounds, and looks like Mrs. Dave, who is doing very well, thank you. David, Jr., got his first squint at this funny world at the Angeles Hospital where, last evening, it was thought necessary to move the young man to another ward to make room for the flowers that are showering upon the happy mother. Mr. Kesson refused to grind the crank on any more scenes for "The Stranger's Banquet" two days ago in order to concentrate his thoughts on a boy. Judging from the lusty yells of David, Jr., daddy is some concentrator.

GAGS FOR HAMILTON. Archie Mayo, who is known as one of the keenest gag writers in motion picture comedies, is a member of the Lloyd Hamilton staff. He is a most prolific writer. In one year he wrote and collaborated in twenty-seven comedies, nine of which were Lloyd Hamilton comedies and seven being Jack White Mervin productions.

With the beginning of the new series of Lloyd Hamilton comedies for educational release Mr. Mayo has been signed to direct "Gage" for Hamilton alone. The first of the new comedies is "The Speeder" and the second, which has just been completed, is "No Luck."

MONROVIA HAS MAD DOG SCAREOfficer Kills Animal Said to Have RabiesPythian Knights Enjoy Big Watermelon FeastCounty Jail Too Full to Take in Boy Prisoner

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
MONROVIA, Aug. 24.—A handsome colts was shot this afternoon by Constable James L. Guiglion after the animal had attempted to bite several other dogs and had attempted to attack children playing along Huntington Drive. Constable Guiglion, answering the alarm believed the animal showed signs of being mad and destroyed it. The head will be examined by officials of the county health department. A dog that killed a goat and attacked four deer at Glendora was destroyed yesterday by the Glendora marshal. Examination by the county health department showed the animal to be in an advanced state of rabies, it is said.

WATERMELON FEAST
A ton and a half of juicy watermelons was consumed this evening by a thousand Pythian Knights gathered here for their regular convocation of the citrus belt Pythian Association. Delegates from Redlands, San Bernardino, Covina, Fontana, Chino, Corona, Riverside, Highland, Hemet, Barstow and Perris crowded the Greek theater to capacity. The watermelon feast followed the program at which Sheriff William Traeger, past grand chancellor, Brown, presided. John S. Myers, Royal Vicer, Frank Merrian and others participated. The Hall Jubilee Singers completed the evening's entertainment. Gem City Lodge No. 72, was host to the visitors.

NO ROOM IN JAIL
Because he could not produce $1000 bail and the Los Angeles County Jail was too crowded to receive him, Fred Anderson, 19, was returned to the Monrovia jail today to await preliminary hearing Saturday morning before Judge Burr on the charge of burglary. Anderson is said to have been taken into the Monrovia jail by Dr. P. M. Stone in his Santa Anita Canyon. He declares he has permission to leave the jail and return to his home in Monrovia, a previous owner and did not know the place had changed hands. Penalty for the offense is from one to fifteen years in prison.

WELCOME HEAT WAVE
Today was one of the hottest of the year with the mercury at 102. Citrus ranchers are relocating, however, for the hot weather is too late to cause any damage to the young fruit and is declared a big aid in destroying black scale and other pests.

STRIVE TO PROTECT
PROPERTYAlienists Decide Elderly Millionaire is of Unsound Mind

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
SAN DIEGO, Aug. 24.—Hearing on a petition for the appointment of a guardian for O. J. Stough, aged millionaire of this city terminated abruptly this afternoon when alienists decided after a brief examination, that Stough was mentally incompetent. The decision was reached following a series of questions propounded to Mr. Stough by George L. Sanders, Los Angeles attorney representing James Ballagh, who had asked the court to place Stough under the care of a guardian, because the elderly man's properties were being taken from his control. Mr. Ballagh is a brother-in-law of Mr. Stough.

"You ride horseback a lot or have ridden a great deal, haven't you?" asked the attorney. The old man said he had. "Do you remember riding to Point Loma on horseback?" continued Sanders. "You rode right across the bay didn't you?" asked Sanders, where the water wasn't more than ten feet deep. Stough agreed that he had ridden across the bay. Judge Luce interrupted the proceedings at this point. "What use is there of going any farther?" Judge Edgar Luce asked of John McCorkle, representing Stough. McCorkle agreed that the question of Stough's mental condition be left to the alienists. Dr. T. W. Bishop of Pasadena, and Dr. H. R. Andrews then advised Judge Luce that Stough, in their opinion, was suffering from senile decay.

Judge Luce continued the case until tomorrow morning, a decision on the guardianship question will be made.

JOB SEEKERS LOSE

City to Retain Trained Men in Municipal Service

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
SOUTH PASADENA, Aug. 24.—Job-seekers who have been casting their resumes toward South Pasadena's new municipal water system, which will be a reality the first of next week, are doomed to a bitter disappointment.

It is understood that the city intends to retain in their positions the present employees of the three private water companies which are being taken over. The water of these, however, will be transferred to the city hall. Rumors that South Pasadena jobs may soon be under civil service are beginning to circulate. The new water system nearly doubles the number of city employees. Should the city follow through with its present survey of the possibilities of municipal distribution of light and power, another large group of workers will be added to the city pay roll, making necessary some centralized method of handling their appointments and dismissals.

CAMP MEETING

Festival of Worship

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
SOUTH PASADENA, Aug. 24.—Attended by more than 300 worshippers, the annual camp meeting of the Holiness church is now under way in Arroyo Seco, where the "old-time religion" folk own twelve acres half of which is in Los Angeles and half in South Pasadena. For many years the Holiness denomination has been using this property, developing it from a struggling group of tents to a little religious city of wooden shacks, unoccupied except for the few weeks each summer when the members devote their time to prayer, meditation and sermons from early morn until late at night.

Prominent in the meeting is Rev. J. F. Washburn of this city, who has been a preacher and organizer of the sect for forty years.

ARREST FOLLOWS

FIRE AT FRESNO

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
FRESNO, Aug. 24.—William Wesley was treated at the Emergency Hospital here this morning for injuries sustained when fire destroyed four sheds near his home. He will be detained by the police pending investigation, concerning the ownership of a still found in the debris. According to the police, the fire is supposed to have started following an explosion in one of the sheds. It is the officers' contention that the explosion was caused by a still, the bellows of which had been dry. Wesley, the police say, served a sentence in the County Jail some time ago for violating the prohibition law.

WITNESS
TELLS OF
MURDERWife of Dead Man Recites
Detail of Crime in Hills
Near San Diego

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
SAN DIEGO, Aug. 24.—John V. Hendricks, charged with the murder of Thomas Kester, his partner in the manufacture of moonshine whiskey, was bound over for trial on a charge of first-degree murder, following his preliminary hearing in justice court today. The 34-year-old wife of the slain man testified that Hendricks entered her bedroom after he had beaten Kester to death and forced her to submit to his advances. She declared she struggled with him to thwart his purpose and only when it was apparent that two alternatives confronted her, submission or death, did she give up. Then he forced her to share his bed for the remainder of the night, while the dead body of her husband lay in an adjoining room. In the early hours of the morning, she managed to elude her captor by telling him that the breathing of her pet collies was in reality the breathing of Kester, Hendricks, frightened at the thought that Kester might not be dead, fled from the house and the woman made her escape from the mountain cabin through three miles of underbrush. She was rescued by passing autoists. Hendricks, a man with wrinkled, furrowed face and gray hair, about 55 years old, was in court without an attorney. He listened impatiently to the testimony of Mrs. Kester and other witnesses, and when given the opportunity to question them, he said that he was satisfied without asking any questions.

TELEPHONE SYSTEM AT
BEACH BADChange to New Scheme
Has Long Beach Subscribers
in Peck of Trouble

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
LONG BEACH, Aug. 24.—Hundreds of telephone subscribers who awoke Sunday morning to a realization that their telephones had suddenly become useless, are still clamoring for service.

At midnight Saturday Long Beach discarded its old manual system, with its hundreds of operators and manual boards, and switched over to the automatic system. The switching of telephones failed to function. Institutions and offices where private branch exchanges are installed are said to have suffered most. The switchboard at police headquarters, officials say, became a clearing house for practically all long-distance calls going out of and coming into Long Beach. Through some cause these calls went over trunk lines entering the police station, and to complete them police operators were forced to plug them through and tie up the system.

APPEAL FOR

PROSECUTORPasadena Interests Told Branch Office Depends on Supervisors

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
PASADENA, Aug. 24.—Chief Deputy Dist. Atty. W. C. Doran will recommend to the Board of Supervisors a branch district attorney's office in Pasadena, he said today at a meeting called by the Merchants Association, after representatives of the civic associations of this city, Monrovia, Sierra Madre and other neighboring communities had urged the necessity of the step, and justices and members of the bar association had declared it practicable and advisable. Mr. Doran said he had authority from Dist. Atty. Woolwine to act in the matter and he was convinced that the present staff is not large enough to take care of the work we have in Los Angeles. If the Board will secure an office and furnish it we will establish the branch here. A resolution asking the Supervisors to take the necessary steps was signed by those present at the meeting.

PHYSICIANS BUY

VALUABLE ESTATE

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
REDLANDS, Aug. 24.—The sale of the E. C. Sterling home with its orange grove and wonderful Italian gardens to a group of Los Angeles physicians as a convalescent resort for use of their patients was reported here today. L. W. Neiswander of Los Angeles, who purchased the estate a year ago, sold it today. The home occupies a commanding position of the rim of the hills above Redlands and is surrounded by orange groves and the finest example of formal Italian gardens in this section. It is a large house of the Italian villa type and will be ideal for the purpose for which it is to be used. No consideration was named, but the place is generally valued at about $50,000.

The discovery was made when Federal secret service men saw them go to the home of a Chinese who had been suspected of complicity in the opium traffic.

START FIRE
IN FOREST
FOR THRILLSix Acres of Pine Burn;
Damage Totals $15,000;
Yes, It's for Film

In the most intense, quickest, and said to be the costliest forest fire ever started in the West, $15,000 worth of pine was destroyed today for a thrill. The fire lasted three minutes—$5000 a minute—and a locomotive was wrecked in putting out the flames. Packed with excavator, loaded with gasoline and distillate, a young forest of pines covering six acres was touched off near San Fernando last evening to show the disastrous effects of such a conflagration. It was done for a motion-picture company, the Louis B. Mayer productions.

Dispute Between Railroads Hits
Valley Fruit Growers

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
FRESNO, Aug. 24.—Five thousand refrigerator cars, accumulated on the Santa Fe tracks and said by shippers to be sufficient for the next thirty days' demands of San Joaquin Valley fruit shippers, are being withheld from immediate service because of a disagreement between the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe concerning revenue terms, according to Al E. Sunderland, chairman of a local shippers' and growers' committee. The question came to a crisis yesterday after the Santa Fe, which is a district freight agent of the Southern Pacific company, declared at a meeting of shippers and growers held here that his company would accept cars from the Santa Fe only in block orders, not permitting shippers to order from the Santa Fe for shipment over Southern Pacific lines. Mr. Ish is understood to be in San Francisco today taking the matter up with higher officials of the Santa Fe for shipment over Southern Pacific lines.
